

April 21, 2003

I called a law firm called Meroni & Meroni to make an appointment to have a meeting about my patent for the wireless/cordless stethoscope. I spoke to Derek Pressley and he gave me some basic info. I had been in to speak with him in March but he only vaguely remembers talking with me. I left it at that since I feared that he would charge me again and call the first meeting the free $\frac{1}{2}$ hour consultation. PP 4-21-03

April 29th - Spoke to Derek and made an appointment to come in on the 6th to discuss the wireless stethoscope at 10AM PP 4-29-

April 30th

I received a letter thanking me for calling. Meroni & Meroni enclosed info about the firm and some information in packet called: Trademark, Patent & Copyright Protection for an Idea. PP 4-30-03

May 6th Tuesday

Drove to Barrain Hills to Meroni & Meroni office and showed them the w/stethoscope - Seemed to be very impressed and expressed feelings that there could be many possibilities for its use. They felt that its introduction ^{into} to specific clients ~~to~~ would be at a timely advantage.

I paid for $\frac{1}{2}$ of the fee with my Credit Card
$ 425. PP. 5-6-03
